I strive to agree with Jesus Christ in all things, because He loved me and suffered the punishment of my sins. It is possible that I have been mistaken in some matters. However I trust that He will correct me, if I have misunderstood something. I love His reprimand and His comfort because without them I cannot remain in truth. Thus, if there is something wrong in these writings it is the fault of Erkki Kuisma. Jesus deserves the credit for everything that is right.

Evolution of Evilness

God has not created evilness but it has evolved by chance. If you cannot see any evidence of God, it is due to the evilness surrounding you.

All were created good

God said to the devil: "You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, till iniquity was found in you." Eze.28:15 God didn't create the devil to be bad. He changed that way. We can call this transformation the evolution of evilness. What God planned He also created. He did not plan evilness. It just evolved.

God has planned and created species so that an internal variability is possible. It doesn't apply only to physical features of species but also to mental faculties. The result of the internal variability of species is transmitted to the next generation, but this doesn't bring about new species, because there are limits of the variability planned for all species.

The origin of species as the evolution of chances is the most unreasonable thought that has ever been introduced. Reason says that species are planned. However the evolution theory is a remarkable thing in the evolution of evilness, because it is an efficient way to silence the conscience of man. If God did not exist there would not be judgment. Therefore the evolution theory has given people freedom to do evil.

God is wholly good God. He has no dark side at all. Therefore everything He has created is good. Man was created good and also all the animals. At the beginning animals didn't eat each other and there was no violence and blood shedding. "This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all." 1Jo.1:5

Big Bang of evilness

Evilness was born in a world invisible for us. When a cherub of God changed into the devil it was like the big bang for the evolution of evilness. It changed Eve evil and after that it reached Adam and through him it reached animals and the whole nature. We have inherited the bad lusts of Adam but not his guilt. Every one of us has had our own personal Fall.

Most things in nature prove that God exists. Instead evilness in the world does not prove that He exists, because He has not created it. Therefore it is logical if a person filled with evilness experiences that he has no evidence that God exists.

Evilness made rapid progress in the mankind. Soon it evolved so bad that God decided to destroy the mankind with the Flood and saved only eight persons of them. Also later God has many times limited the evolution of evilness in some way. Even so, evilness has always come up again worse than ever.

Daniel saw the four beasts in his vision. The last one was the most evolved. Those four beasts are the four time periods of the evolution of evilness. This vision also predicts what the end of the last beast is. Jesus Christ will come down from heaven and stops the evolution of evilness and destroys the fourth beast.

In due time God sent His Son Jesus to the world to atone our sins and in due time He will send Jesus to destroy the deeds of evilness and to restore God's nature. Then "the wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox and dust shall be the serpent's food." Isa.65:25

Salvation and the evolution of apostasy

From the beginning it was possible that people could repent and be reconciled with God. This also happened to Abel, the son of Adam. He confessed his evilness and wanted to turn away from it. He expressed this to God by sacrificing a lamb. God forgave him and gave the testimony of His acceptance. Now Jesus Christ is the sacrificial lamb of God whom we can put to be our sin offering and experience the salvation.

When the gospel of Jesus for the first time went out to the world, its opponents were quite "undeveloped". During the two thousand years many who have come to faith have given up their faith to Jesus. The culture of apostasy has evolved among them. This culture has its culmination in the days of the fourth beast of Daniel's vision.

"When the transgressors have reached their fullness, a king shall arise, having fierce features, who understands sinister schemes. His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; he shall destroy fearfully, and shall prosper and thrive; he shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people. Through his cunning he shall cause deceit to prosper under his rule, and he shall exalt himself in his heart. He shall destroy many in their prosperity. He shall even rise against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without human means."

Da.8:23-25

The culture of apostasy is evolution of deceptions. Nowadays people's skill to deceive themselves and others is very well evolved. The evolution of evilness reaches its fullness in backsliding Christians. Misusaging God's grace is the worst possible evilness. Apostates have reached the full measure of their sins, when they claim that they shall be saved although they continue committing sins on purpose.

In them the prophecy is fulfilled: "There would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts. These are sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit." Jude 18-19 They represent themselves as Christians but they have not the Spirit of Christ.

Incorruptible inheritance

Imagine, how terrible it would be, if God must say about you: "You were blameless in your ways from the day you became to faith, till iniquity was found in you."

Let's remain in God's love that is in Jesus Christ and iniquity shall not be found in us. If we fell we regret and confess our sins and He cleanses us from all iniquity.

If we have the strength to stay faithful to God during our short life, we will be perfect in eternity like Jesus. When we have come to Him, we cannot fall away from Him anymore. Then no iniquity can ever be found in us. Then we will never fall.

Peter rejoices at the "incorruptible and undefiled" inheritance, by which he means our transformation to the likeness of Jesus. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who

according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation." 1Pe.1:3-5

Do you appreciate this inheritance? If you do, then beware of evolution of evilness. The most evolved evilness says to you that you cannot lose your salvation during your life. They tempt you to settle down in a treacherous rest. It is not until you are in God's heaven that you can state: Now saved always saved! Your precious inheritance is "reserved in heaven for you". Now it is yours only in hope. Let your hope remain living!

What a wonderful rest it will be, when there never is any danger of becoming an enemy of God! Therefore do not rest yet but fight against evilness in the power of God that you got through faith and you will reach the Sabbath-rest.

Axis of Evil

The globe is a planet of rebelling and evil beings. The governments of all the states rebel against the God Almighty and form the axis of evil. Be soon reconciled to God so that you would not be destroyed together with the rebels!

Government and moral

God has established governing authorities to maintain law and order. They should hold terror for those who do wrong, but commend those who do right. Woe to them, for they have called illegal legal and unnatural natural!

By making laws that are against God's laws they have signed the destruction of their state. Accepting marriages of gays and lesbians is maybe the last drop that causes the bowl of God's wrath to flow over.

It is very outrageous that they justify their perversity by saying that their attachment is on a higher level love than the love between a man and a woman. Impudently they even insist that their lust is God's love. Could there be any cheekier insult?

They behave in the same way as the people of Sodom. God visited their town and the men of the town wanted a sexual intercourse with Him. Very soon after this God destroyed the town.

Heart of the axis of evil

Selfishness, greed and pride build up the kernel of evil. These three are under the special protection of the state authority. Governments support selfishness and bad lusts by making laws that support sinful sexual behaviour. They have founded the laws of economic life on greed and not on the needs of people. Governments support pride of their citizens in many ways, but the machinery of war is the heart of the national pride.

Rulers have fed their people with pride to maintain the unity of the nation. They have maintained economic growth by favouring greed. By supporting sexual lustfulness they have maintained their own popularity. The history proves that patriotism has been the most popular religion on the earth. This idolatry has been so terrible because it has often been practised in the name of God. How much the name of God has been defamed!

George Bush says that he believes in Jesus of the Bible but he denies Him by his actions. By killing people for whom Jesus has died he brings disgrace on the name of God. Jesus and God of the Bible have nothing to do with his campaigns.

Only Jesus is worthy to kill a man, because He was executed for everybody. If we kill it is a crime against the gospel! You cannot have a part in both the gospel of God and an armour. Select one of them and stop the blasphemy!

State as an idol

Because states are worshipped as idols, they form the axis of evil that is against God. Idolatry of a state comes clearly up in a war where soldiers offer their lives for their fatherland. Wars are blood sacrifices to state-gods. Some give this sacrifice involuntarily, but others sacrifice themselves voluntarily. A state that forces its citizens to give this sacrifice, behaves like a beast.

An oath to the state flag and a military oath are "Communions" of evil spirits, where people participate in evil forces. Evil spirits are working in every idolatry. All armies of the world are fortresses of evil. One day they will be gathered to Armageddon in Israel and fight against God. On that day God exterminates all armies. The result is the total disarmament of the world.

Soldier's graves are dedicated to the glory of the state-god. God will fight against all idols and false gods! Their altars will be put down. The honour of military heroes will turn out to be a shame. Every government will lose its power. All their proud heroes will be put to shame.

Science as an idol

Many people have taken an idolizing attitude towards human deeds. They bow to the achievements of science and technology like to God. They pin their faith on the development of science. Evolution theory has been used to prevent people from honouring God as the Creator. This has been done therefore that God's glory in nature could be transformed to the glory of man. When a scientist says something, many receive it as a speech of God.

It has been so suitable to credit the miracles of nature to chance, because mister Chance needs not to be honoured. In this way all glory drops automatically to a scientist - to that great inventor and genius. How do you think they will answer on the last judgment when God will bring a charge against them for a copyright crime?

State, science and backsliding Christianity are the leaders of the rebellion against the God Almighty. Their insurgency is changing more and more insolent. This tells us that Jesus is coming soon.

Miraculous is natural

Sometimes people invent very strange explanations for the miracles of the Bible. They succeed in giving a "natural" reason for every miracle. They try to prove that it was not a miracle of God but it was just a natural thing.

They are speaking as if natural and miraculous were opposites. Are they blind? Do they not see miracles in nature? Nature is not the opposite of a miracle but a part of the miracle. Everything natural is actually very miraculous. For instance think about a seed that holds a miraculous amount of information. What releases it to grow? He who has coded the DNA codes and planned the very fine system of plants, is able to do many other miraculous things!

Also God's judgements are made to seem as "natural" phenomena. Therefore some speak about the Planet X which many believe shall cause great devastation on the earth. When God's wrath is coming from the heaven it is wanted to turn the attention of people away from God. Why are people rather afraid of SARS or asteroids than God? Because before them they need not humble themselves and repent their sins.

Rebellion of man

People don't believe the miracles of the Bible, because they rebel against God. Because God says to man that do not commit adultery, therefore the adulterer says that God doesn't exist. Because God says to man that do not kill, therefore the killer says that God doesn't exist. Because God says to man that do not steal, therefore the thief says that God doesn't exist.

He doesn't deny God because he has no evidences about God but because he wants to live in the way that is against God's will. When he sees the doomsday of God approaching, he says that "the mother nature revenges on us". Oh how I wish he would give glory to God, repent and ask mercy from God!

Remember that God hears your every thought. When you think that "God's judgements are wrong", He will prove to you that your own judgements are wrong. If you don't humble yourselves before God, you are crazy!

Give up your rebellion

Now listen, you who are rebelling against God! From where did you get your courage for it? Do you believe that you are able to judge Him? How dare you? God demonstrated His love to you by preparing your salvation in the atoning death of Jesus.

Now come to your senses! God deserves to get our praises. He has been so good to us! God deserves to get our admiration and worship. He is so wise and powerful! It is senseless to disregard God. Is it not reasonable to be His friend, although all people discarded you? God can arrange all kind of good things for His friends, but who can defend you against Him, if you are His enemy?

All states are rogue states

Because all governments of the world recommend sin, they are rogue states. The axis of evil rules the whole globe, but its days are numbered. Sin is a weapon of mass destruction. Do not conceal it. God demands you to put away all injustice. Near is the day when He will come on the earth and judge all nations. Just for a while He offers mercy to His enemies through the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Woe to you who live your days in sinful pleasures; the day of your sufferings is near. Woe to you who walk your days in pride; the day of your shame is near. Woe to you who act your days in greed, the day of your bankruptcy is near.

Dead end of a suicidal murderer

Some have reached such a dead end in their life that they have found no other way out of their distress than committing a suicide. Woe to them, why didn't they call on God! If they had done it, for them would have been opened the way to life! Do not become a murderer, whatever is the reason for your dead end! Don't knock at the floor of your agony, but at its ceiling. Don't ask for falling down to death, but ask for rising up to life! To him who knocks at it, it will be opened!

Self-destruction

A proud man can experience reaching a dead end, if he will face public shame. For example some businessmen who have gone bankrupt have committed suicides. They rather died than carried their shame. The greater things a man thinks about himself the harder he feels the shame. Take care not to think proud thoughts about yourself! They are seeds of self-destruction.

The desire to live that comes from your own glory is deceitful. Seeing God's glory gives the eternal desire to live. If only you knew Him, who deserves all glory, but received our shame. By looking at His agony your distress is taken away. His agony has opened the way up to life for many distressed.

Tired of life

Devoted caring to your matter can exhaust your soul and spirit. The efforts of your innermost being can consume all your energies. Exhausting of your spirit appears so that you are interested in nothing anymore.

Losing the purpose of your life can lead you to a suicide or to self-destructive behaviour. Expressed with the term of the Bible your soul is "going down to the pit" and expressed with modern term you are "burning out". God is the source of life. Before long your spirit is exhausted, if you are not in connection with Him.

Driven by your lusts, your exhausted spirit can get refreshment only from God. Our spirit gets exhausted, if it is not allowed to drink the Spirit of God. Thirst for God: "I spread out my hands to You;

my soul thirsts for You like a parched land. Answer me quickly, O LORD; my spirit fails. Do not hide Your face from me or I will be like those who go down to the pit." Ps.143:6-7

A life lived for God doesn't exhaust, but a life lived for idols exhaust both soul and spirit. The Bible describes the stress of godless people: "You will find no repose, no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you an anxious mind, eyes weary with longing, and a despairing heart. You will live in constant suspense, filled with dread both night and day, never sure of your life. In the morning you will say, 'If only it were evening!' and in the evening, 'If only it were morning!'" Deut. 28:65-67

Also some successful men have committed suicide even on the grand day of their glory. They burned out when serving their idols. Money or work might be their god. "For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have pierced themselves with many griefs." 1Tim.6:10

Also many other bad lusts can lead to a suicide. You can come to a desperate conclusion, if you lose the object of your passion: "I cannot live without it or without him/her". You can also come to a desperate decision after you gained your greatly desired pleasure: "Getting this is not as great an experience as I thought. Is there any reason to live anymore!" How dangerous it is to love perishable things too much!

"Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death." 2Cor.7:10

It is good for you to be so much worried about your sins that you begin to seek the grace of God. That kind of stress leads to salvation. However, many are worried so much about how to get rich that they finally start to seek death.

God must be more important to us than our work. We don't work for our living, but because it is the God's will. God gives us our food and drink by His grace without earnings of our work or in spite of it. So we all eat the bread of charity. Jesus says: "Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?" Matth.6:25-27

If you don't get tired of sinning then you get tired of your life. What is your choice? He who is tired of his sins can find a new life in Jesus.

Self-execution

Judas Iscariot was overcome by desperation, because he didn't believe in the Son of God. "When Judas was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders.: 'I have sinned', he said, 'for I have betrayed innocent blood'. 'What is that to us?' they replied. 'That's your responsibility.' So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself." Matth.27:3-5

If Judas had been afraid of the judgement of God, he would have asked God for mercy. Instead he went to confess his deed to his accomplices who didn't regret at all their deed. Believing in the God of judgement saves us from the judgement of our own heart and the judgement of the other people. Guilt without faith in God leads to despair.

Judas didn't believe in Jesus in the same way as the other disciples. When speaking about Judas Jesus says: "no-one can come to me unless the Father has enabled him." John.6:64-65 Judas had rejected the testimony that the Father, God had given him about Jesus. However he believed in Jesus in his own way, which caused his destruction. He would not have been able to betray Jesus, if he had realised who Jesus truly was.

Feeling of guilt can be unbearable. Its agony can kill. It is no wonder, if we want to get rid of it. However pain of guilt without pain of judgement means sick guilt. Modern soft attitude to sin has created a lot of sick guilt. Do not condemn your parents or social conditions or God for your deeds. It is your fault. Be responsible and confess that you deserve the judgement of God and men.

If only you would know Him, who was not guilty but got the punishment of God for our sins. In Gethsemane He took to carry our guilt, but on the cross the judgement of God struck to Him instead of us. He did this just for you that you could get the strength to confess that you deserve your punishment.

Do not only feel: "I have sinned." You should also feel: "I deserve the judgement of God." God's forgiveness doesn't reach those who only confess their sins, but don't accept the judgement of God. When they rebel against the judgement of God they get into difficulties where they have no other choice than to judge themselves.

If you don't humble yourself to be judged by God, it is only natural that you will be judged by yourself or other people. Do not be afraid of God's judgement, for He loves you, although He judges your bad deeds. "The punishment that brought us peace was upon Him."

Isaiah.53:5

Suicide bombing

Many people commit suicide bombings against God. They have bound themselves to the bomb of sin with the rope of injustice.

"Woe to those who draw sin along with cords of deceit, and wickedness as with cart ropes." Isaiah 5:18

Their words bind them firmly to evil when they proclaim their sins as virtues. God has drawn them with the cords of love, but they have cut them.

They rush against God in defiance of their destiny in order to hurt God's feelings with their suicides. Think about it - they try to hurt His feelings who loved them so much that sent His Son to atone their sins! When they wage war against God they will be killed by His holiness, which ignites the bomb of sin they have bound to themselves.

Many assume that all people would believe in God, if only He would appear in a visible way. However the problem is not in the insufficient evidences of God, but people don't accept the principles of God. . They love injustice and therefore they hate God and His reprimands.

God sends distresses to men in order to open their ears to receiving reprimands and commands them to turn from wrongdoing. But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword and die without knowledge. God chastens a man on a bed of pain with constant distress in his bones "to preserve his soul from the pit, his life from perishing by the sword." Job.33:18

The soul of a desperate, would-be potential suicide "draws near to the pit, and his life to the messengers of death." If he then calls on Jesus, God is gracious to him and says: "Spare him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom for him." In this way God "turns back his soul from the pit, that the light of life may shine on him." Job 33:22,24,30

God has hidden Himself from the mankind, so that His presence would not too much harass the everyday life of the rebels. However very soon He will appear for the whole mankind and then all godless people want to commit suicide. They carry out it so that they gather to the battle against God in Armageddon. Rev.16:13-16

A war against an enemy superior in force is a suicide. The Palestinians seek to do suicide bombings because of the superiority of the Israelites. If they would believe in their victory they would try to stay alive. Now they see only the two alternatives, either to live in the country governed by the Jews or to die. In the same way the whole mankind will feel when Jesus comes. They have to live in the world governed by God or to die. Many of them rather die than live "boring Sunday school life" in the Kingdom of God.

Jesus died on the cross for you so that your rebellion could be changed into love. Do not murder yourself, but allow God to save you.

Euthanasia

For the incurably ill it is nowadays wanted the right to commit suicide with the help of a doctor. He experiences no purpose in his life and therefore wants to die. God has a different point-of-view than we of our purpose of life. Our life in this body is valuable, although we could not live a physically active life. Also when very sick we can grow and ripen in the spirit. From the God's point-of-view our real life is in eternity and our earthly life is only a preparation time for our real lot.

It is upsetting that euthanasia is also called a mercy killing. It is a mockery to connect the word "mercy" with a suicide. . Euthanasia is a suicide. It is a flight into death from the dead end of pains.

When the judgements of God will face the world the mankind seeks death: "During those days men will seek death, but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will elude them." Rev.9:6

You cannot flee from God to any place, not even to death. In any case you one day must stand before Him and answer for your life. If you intend to commit a suicide, you must take into your considerations that you can fall out of the frying pan into the fire. Certainly in hell they are suffering more than you now. Jesus experienced your anguish on the cross. He overcame death and was risen up. He is able to save you. The way up is open. You are not in a dead end, but in a pit. Jesus can draw you up to the wide place!

The stroke of Islam

The terror attack in USA was a stroke of Islam against misbelievers. They did it in the name of Allah. So is Allah a terrorist? Have pity on them, because they are deceived souls! They have believed lies about God. An Islamite doesn't get out of the circle of revenge, because the Quran doesn't know any atoning sacrifice for sins. Jesus is the only atoning sacrifice which can change revenge to forgiveness. Do not revenge an injustice, for it has already been revenged on Jesus!

Who is guilty?

New York experienced what it means to be a city of misbelievers, when the Islamite struck with the passenger planes against its skyscrapers. It is obvious that the men who piloted the planes towards the death shouted, little before the crash, "Allah is great!"

Pity them, they were deceived souls! They believed in getting to God's paradise but they woke in hell. Surely they were more surprised at this than the world was surprised at their deed.

Are not Islamic priests guiltier than they? Who promised the Paradise for them if they will die in a holy war? Who gave the permission to start this war? They are guilty together with them!

Many politicians of the Islamic countries have condemned this terror attack, but how is it with Islamic priests. Why no-one of their spiritual leaders has come to the public media and condemned this and said that this deed is against the will of Allah. If the Islamite would really condemn this deed they would say that Allah hates violence and those terrorists deserve the fire of hell.

Temptation to a holy war

What does the Quran say about war? "Those who readily fight in the cause of God are those who forsake this world in favor of the Hereafter. Whoever fights in the cause of God, then gets killed, or attains victory, we will surely grant him a great recompense." Quran 4:

Muhammad is the most successful chaplain of the world's history. He has been able to speak so well that many have been ready to die for their religion, fatherland and home. Because the Quran offers for an Islamite the possibility to change this world to the Hereafter through the holy war, especially a world-weary person is eager to make a holy war. In this way a Muslim who lives in difficult circumstances is easily dangerous for his environment. Because the daily life of Palestinians is difficult in Israel, it is easy to enlist them "to forsake this world in favour of the Hereafter".

The Quran gives the following condition that allows to make war: "You may fight in the cause of God against those who attack you, but do not aggress. God does not love the aggressors. You may kill those who wage war against you, and you may evict them whence they evicted you. Oppression is worse than murder." Quran 2:190-191

If the Islamite consider Americans idolaters who are fighting against them, they realise that they are at a holy war against them. This attack against USA was apparently a part of their war to get Jerusalem.

It is God's to avenge

If Americans would be Christians they would not make acts of revenge, for the Bible commands: "Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: 'It is mine to avenge; I will repay, says the Lord'." Rom.12:19

If the Israelite would believe in the scriptures of the Old Testament they would not make acts of revenge. Already through Moses it has been given something about the message of Jesus: "Love your enemies." Matth.5:44

If the Israelite would obey their God, they would apply to the Palestinians the words of God that they got through Moses: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay. In due time their foot will slip; their day of disaster is near and their doom rushes upon them The Lord will judge his people and have compassion on his servants." Deut.32:35

Instead of revenging we should do good to our enemies. Although this way we maybe don't succeed in making them our friends, at least we will get a reward from God. "If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat; if he is thirsty, give him water to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you." Prov.25:21-22 Normally people themselves want to revenge an injustice they experienced, because they don't believe that the judgement of God is real.

Of course Americans have the right to demand the terrorist to be judged in court. However if they don't succeed in getting them to the courtroom they should leave the case to be judged by God. When they go and take a revenge they prove themselves to be the same kind of deceived ones as those terrorists. The both of them are sure in their minds that they are justified in making war, though actually they are not. USA is their god though they call themselves Christians. Pride in patriotism has made their hearts so hard that they don't want to listen to God.

How is revenge changed to forgiveness?

The Quran speaks how God is gracious and forgives us. On the other hand it also speaks that God demands revenge according to the law of equivalence, "eye for eye, and tooth for tooth". How could Allah forgive? Notice that he would break his own law when omitting a revenge of a guilty one.

The Quran doesn't tell how God is able to follow his own law of revenge and to forgive at the same time. It doesn't know the concept of "the atoning sacrifice". Instead, the God of the Bible tells that He is able to forgive, because the Son of God, Jesus Christ repaid our sins on the cross.

The Quran creates a conflict between revenge and forgiveness in the soul of every Muslim. He knows nothing about the atoning sacrifice, through which he could see revenge being replaced by forgiveness. It is the same problem also with all the other people who don't personally know Jesus as their own Saviour. They cannot find a way out from the circle of revenge, because they don't see how Jesus was punished once on the cross because of every wrongdoer.

You need not revenge an injustice, because it has already been revenged on Jesus!

Revenge or atonement

He who felt offended must make the choice, whether to seek a revenge or an atonement. To get the atonement it is needed a conciliator. Who pays the damages caused by the injustice deeds?

Theft of my car

When my car was stolen and broken, I felt offended. I was angry with the thief. How could that rascal cause me the trouble and the lost of my money! Although the thief was not caught, his crime was soon atoned in my heart.

I could forgive him, because God has compensated me all injustice that I have suffered. I didn't get any compensation from men, because there was not an insurance against theft for my car.

I have nothing to forgive anybody. For everything, what people have done against me, I have got the payment. The sacrifice of Jesus, the Son of God has given me the power to forgive them.

Repenting gets forgiveness

Why I forgive them, though they do not repent nor excuse nor compensate the caused damage? Indeed, not even God has forgiven me before I repented of my sins and believed in Jesus. The reason for it is that God has not wronged anybody.

He is perfectly innocent of all evil. He doesn't forgive unrepentant ones, because it would defame justice and would insult grace. I have committed sins and I have also received the forgiveness from God. Therefore I cannot demand repentance of those who have offended against me as the condition for my forgiveness. If I would do that I would defame grace, which I have got from the God of justice. Because I have been under the same judgement I have lost my rights to require that I would be excused.

Many Christians assure also unrepentant sinners of the forgiveness of God. When they do so they mix up their own forgiveness with God's. They have forgotten that "repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in His name." Luke.24:47

Only God can forgive sins, which have been done against Him. In practice God's Spirit doesn't release anybody from guilt before God, before the man humbles himself and puts the sacrifice of Jesus as the ransom for his crimes against God. Not till then he receives God's forgiveness, though priests would be forgiving him many times.

You yourselves can forgive only the crimes which have been done against you. If I, who have received God's mercy, demand the judgement to a person who offended against me, I will lose the grace that I have already got, according to the teaching of Jesus.

Thirst for revenge

Desire for revenge continues in all over the world, because people have bad consciences of their own sins. They want to revenge and do not search an atonement, because they use revenging as a way to forget the judgement of God which is coming against them for their sins.

Man's revenge searches a selfish and blind compensation. It has the spirit of Cain, which doesn't want the fair punishment for the guilty, but it wants the manifold compensations of loss: "Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech seventy-seven times." Gen.4:24
God wants the atonement which achieves the righteous and truthful reconciliation.

When somebody is stolen from, he can decide to get back his loss by stealing from somebody else in return. They "pass the buck to somebody else", as the phrase goes. In this way they revenge the damage. God doesn't want revenging, but He wants atoning, because only it brings parties concerned to the reconciliation.

We can consider it to be God's revenge when He carries out penalty decisions and so warns people about their sinful life. "Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: 'It is mine to avenge; I will repay,' says the Lord." Rom.12:19

He, who stole my car, offended also against God, not only against me. I cannot forgive him that, but I have prayed God for him and said: You can pay for him his bad deed and discipline him so that he would understand to stop stealing. Give him guilt of his deed that he would search your mercy and could be saved.

God punishes

God's judgement and punishment is waiting for all whose sins against God are without the atonement. He will not revenge on them when they are thrown into the lake of fire, but they will fall into it atoning their sins. The ransom for them is so great that it takes an eternity when they are atoning it. "No man can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for him - the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough - that he should live on for ever and not see decay." Ps.49:7-9

Isn't it a really very valuable redemption which Jesus provided for you? Although the ransom of your soul is costly, the death of Jesus, the Son of God is more costly. It has the power to change your eternal punishment to eternal life. Why would you revenge yourself by rejecting this great atonement?

Makers of the World Wide Government

The globalisation brings with it a government that will rule globally. It is a difficult task to unite the governmental powers of the world. No wonder that there is a need for a secretly acting organisation to make it happen. The mankind is going to have one ruler.

Secrets of Freemasons

At the end of the 70's I told a man about my faith in Jesus. Then he replied me that he is a Freemason. Just before that moment he had told me that he had visited Israel. Because of his journey I had mentioned to him about Antichrist who will be received by the Israeli as the Messiah. This will happen, because they didn't know the true Messiah, Jesus.

He started to tell me things that he would not have a permission to tell. It was a miracle that he revealed himself to me. Before that moment I had heard nothing about Freemasons.

He told that the journey to Israel had been a visit of the Finnish Freemasons to the Freemasons of Israel. He tried eagerly to convince me of the generosity of the Freemasonry. He told that in their meeting in Israel there were the prime minister of Israel and the leader of an Arab country. They both were Freemasons. In the meeting they were embracing each other as the freemason brothers although they were the leaders of the hostile countries. Isn't it nice?

The seal of the Grand Lodge of Israel.

He told that their organisation has members from Christians, Jews and Muslims. Having faith in the existence of one God joins them together. They are an organisation of good people who want to develop themselves into still better men. They believe in the Holy Book that radiates divine light to their lives. This Book can be the Bible or the Quran. He told that at that time in Finland there was one lodge where the Book was the Quran, not the Bible. The leader of a lodge is called the Master.

During the conversation the Holy Spirit told me that Freemasons are working for the kingdom of the beast mentioned in the Revelation. Later I read the books where other believers had collected information of Freemasonry and they had come to the same conclusion as I. (Christ, the Christian and Freemasonry, W.J.McK. McCormick)

An answer to my prayer

After the conversation mentioned above I started to pray God for Freemasons and I asked Him to reveal them. After a time the names of the Finnish Freemasons were published in the Finnish magazine, APU. It was the answer to my prayer. The list showed me that the members were men from the top of the society. They were all kind of leaders: politicians, bank managers, judges, physicians, priests, bishops and industrialists. So they have quite a great influence in the world. They have all the possibilities to act as the "kibitzers" of many things.

The Freemasonry is not a religion though Antichristian religiousness is under their protection. Rather it is a club of influential men who help each other.

The religion of Freemasons

Freemasons believe in the existence of one God and in the eternal soul of man, but they have left it open to what kind of God each and everyone believes. Because they accept in their organisation Judaism, Islamism and Christianity they cannot confess that the Jesus of the Bible is the Messiah. They only consider Jesus an exemplary good man.

The denial of the true godhead of Jesus is an evidence of Antichristianity: "Who is the liar? It is the man who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a man is the antichrist - he denies the Father and the Son." ^{1John.2:22}

The true Man, Jesus Messiah is the true God! Only He is the Master!

The organisation has the hierarchy of the 33 degrees. These steps of the hierarchy describe the steps of the Tower of Babel. In these both the top stone is for God. God as the capstone has been pictured with a triangle that has an eye inside it. In the one dollar note of USA there is such a pyramid with an eye inside the triangle on the top of it. There is the Latin text below the pyramid: "Novos Ordo Seclorum". It means: "The New World Order". The decision to put the picture on the note was made by president Franklin D Roosevelt, who was a Freemason, as were also many other American presidents.

The whole structure of the organisation has been designed for the secret grand person who is the Grand Master of Grand Masters. Freemasons believe that on the top of their pyramid there is God, although actually there is the Devil.

Bible's Jesus forbade lording it over each other. Therefore the true Church of God is not a hierarchical organisation. "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves." Luke 22:25-26 Freemasons call themselves Benefactors and their ideals fit to people who try to gain God's favour with their good deeds. Therefore the salvation through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus is a disgusting thought for them.

Behold you, who have dedicated yourselves with a band on your eyes to the light that is darkness: "Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us ... let us draw near to God ..." Heb.10:19-20

God's holy light will shine upon you only if you dedicate yourselves to God through the blood of the Messiah.

Freemasons have many rituals. In the first degree ceremony eyes are covered for the ritual. When the candidate has taken the oath the cover is removed and this symbolises that the candidate "has entered light". Through the rituals one dedicates oneself to the hierarchy of the organisation. They believe that on the top of the hierarchy there is God.

They are masons because they are building the tower that reaches to the heavens. The spirit of the builders of the Tower of Babel is working in them, although it could not be possible to derive their history from there.. Because they are building a tower, they are masons. They consider themselves free, because they have a liberal and tolerant religion. Authorised by their tolerance they break the commandments of God and dare to say at the same time. "We have done everything what God says." In this way darkness appears as light.

Two construction sites

The Bible speaks about God's congregation as a temple that believers are building. Jesus Christ is the chief cornerstone and the capstone of that temple. Both the Freemasons and the Jesus' believers build a temple, but a different one. These two construction sites are against each other.

The Revelation speaks about the cities where these temples are situated. Babylon is the city of the great prostitute and heavenly Jerusalem is the city of the Bride of the Lamb. John says about Babylon: "This title was written on her forehead: Mystery Babylon the great the mother of prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth. I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus." Rev.17:5-6

This prostitute doesn't describe Freemasons, but it describes their religion. The beast, that carries the prostitute, describes the new world order built by the Freemasons. The ecumenical church will make the nations bow down under the power of the world wide government and on the other hand this government supports the ecumenical church.

Also God's Church is partly secret, for Jesus said about the Church: "The kingdom of God does not come with your careful observation, nor will people say, 'Here it is,' or 'There it is,' because the kingdom of God is within you." Luke 17:20

The Christian Churches and denominations are cover organisations of the true Church of God. Jesus believers have spread all over the world organised by the Holy Spirit. "As you come to Him, the living Stone - rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to Him - you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house..."

1Peter 2:4-5

The World of Freemasons

Every Freemason knows his organisation on the level that he has reached. Every higher level hides new secrets which are not known on the lower levels. On the higher level of the tower you can see things which you cannot see on the lower level.

A membership of this kind of organisation gives the possibility to live double or even triple life. With a little group you can secretly promote a thing that you have no courage to do publicly or your position in the society prevents you from doing it. The internal secret levels of the organisation give the possibility to manipulate the members of the lower degrees. Only the people on the highest level know the real goal of the organisation. What are the secrets of the 33. degrees Freemasons?

They are working for the world wide government. The crisis of the Middle East proves to everybody that religions fighting against each other are the big obstacle to the world peace and unity. Especially the dispute of Jerusalem proves that the world cannot be united in any other way than by uniting the religions.

At the beginning of the Bible it is told about the construction work of the Tower of Babel. It was the very first effort to unite the world. The last attempt is described in the Revelation.

Because of the nature of the process it is a very natural thing that Freemasons have a central role in the peace negotiations of the Middle East which have been done in the guidance of USA. Jerusalem is the holy city of Freemasons and they consider the temple builder king, Salomon, a Freemason. They want to build a temple in the Jerusalem that would be a common temple for the Christians, the Jews and the Muslims. The forthcoming Freemasons' Messiah will consecrate the temple causing fire to come down from heaven to earth.

Freemasons bring about the new world order. They bring forth both a religious and a political leader. They are the party of the Beast who comes out of the sea of nations. They work for his coming. They also bring forth a religious leader who is a miracle making Messiah who will be accepted by the Jews, the Muslims and the Christians. This span of beasts will resolve the current dilemma of Jerusalem.

High towers

The spirit of Babel loves high buildings. They pronounce its pride towering up to heaven. Many Christian church buildings have high towers, because they have been built in the spirit of Babel. God tells that one day He will destroy all high towers: "The LORD Almighty has a day in store for all the proud and lofty, for all that is exalted and they will be humbled,... for every lofty tower..." Isaiah.2:12-15

Bin Laden stroke the lofty towers of New York, because he doesn't accept the world of Freemasons. Was he then doing the job of God, because he destroyed the towers of New York? No, because he was not worthy of it. Only Jesus Christ is worthy to carry out the judgements of God, because He died on the cross instead everyone.

On the September 11th 2001 everybody felt in his inmost heart that now some new time started in the history of mankind. This day came as if ordered by Freemasons, because they can use it for their purposes.

War against terrorism

Political Christianity, Judaism and Islamism are now in crisis. Notice that the alliance against terrorists, driven by USA, is the world where Freemasons have the greatest power. The extremist elements of religions are opposing their aims. President Bush said that the war against terrorism takes a long time, but they will do it and destroy all supporters of terrorists. Therefore we will see many wars for this cause.

This campaign promotes the coming of the world wide government. The Freemasons of the western countries can strengthen the power of their Freemason brothers in the Islamic countries by helping them to destroy their enemies.

Jesus was charged with terrorism

Islamic extremists will be destroyed with hard hand. Also Jewish extremists will be destroyed, if they don't submit themselves to the ecumenical alliance. The devil tries to provoke Christian extremists to violence so that the world wide persecution could be started against all Jesus believers. Therefore every follower of Jesus must keep himself away from all violence. Otherwise he cannot retain his faith in the coming tests.

Jesus was charged with terrorism, although He bore no arms. The Bible says: "He was numbered with the transgressors." Luke 22:37 The disciples were armed which certainly was an evidence that was used against Jesus. He was charged with the plan to destroy the temple of Jerusalem.

Jesus had peace in His heart under the wrong prosecutions, because He had pure conscience. He knew that what was happening was according to God's plan. If you, a believer are going to defend yourself and the values of Christianity with weapons, you will trespass against the gospel and so you cannot share the power of the gospel.. Jesus was a pacifist. Therefore also His followers don't seek safety with guns.

Now go out of Babel and learn from Jesus how not to resist an evil person with human weapons. If you don't obey this message, you will be in danger to lose your faith when your catchers come. Will you then be like Peter and strike with your sword or will you be like Jesus who didn't resist His capturers? His time had come for His departure. He received it as God's will. You do not need to fear the Antichrist, if you know how frightful God is in His power and glory.

I thank God for the Beast and the Antichrist! They would have no possibility to act, if God had not given it to them. They must come, so that all would be judged who have not received Jesus as their Lord and Redeemer. All power and glory belongs to God who sits on the throne and to the Lamb, who was slain - instead of you!

Power and equality

God has all power. Although He has delivered something of His power to men, it is good to remember that He is Lord of lords and King of kings. The humiliations set by God are blessings for us. The rebellions against these humiliations have brought curses to the relationships between people. Mankind pronounces its rebellion against the Almighty God in the name of democracy. Jesus Christ is for us the way to the humility. The unearned increase in value is expecting for the followers of Jesus.

Equality and humility

It is constantly spoken about equality, as if it would be more valuable than humility. It is humility to listen and obey instructions from God or a man. Equality is pride which demands to listen and obey everyone equally. To submit to God is the source of all valuable things. On the other hand all worthlessness comes from submitting to evil.

A wife's submitting to her husband, a child's obedience to his parents, an employee's loyalty to his employer and a citizen's subjection to his government create the human relations, where all feel worthy, if they only stay in their own place. The great wisdom is in these words of Jesus: "For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Matth.23:12

Although you are free to be your own lord, if you humble yourself under God you will be exalted by Him. "Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that He may lift you up in due time." 2Pet.5:6 Equality is a matter of judgement. When people try to exalt themselves in the name of equality, it leads to equal worthlessness.

The feminists are fighting for the equality of women. They have untruthfully considered man's part more valuable than woman's. Therefore they have decided to lift up the women's part to the same level with men's. God considers both women and men equal, and He has proved this when Jesus died on the cross for men and women. Many women don't appreciate this love of God, but they want to do men's work and use the power that belongs to men only. That's why many women have left their valuable part as a woman and a mother, so losing the rich life, which God has prepared for them.

God has created woman to be submitted to her husband. "For man did not come from woman, but woman from man; neither was man created for woman, but woman for man." 1Cor.11:8-9 Husband is the leader of a family and the wife must be submitted to him by supporting and helping aims of her husband. There is a good wife behind a successful man.

After creating the man God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him." 1Gen.2:18 Then God created many animals and brought them to Adam: "So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found." 1Gen.2:20

Pets were not enough company for Adam. Maybe a dog was the best friend of the man before the creating of Eve. God blessed the couple and their marriage which was happy during the time when Eve obeyed her husband. The family was getting into the crisis on the day when Eve yielded to disobedience and took and ate the forbidden fruit.

Jesus has given us a fine example of humility. When living here He didn't seek to please himself (John.5:30), but He submitted to his Father's will in everything. "He humbled himself and became obedient to death - even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the name that is above every name." Phil.2:8-9 A wife has a good opportunity to get more worthy by being submitted to her husband. Man has his own opportunity where he can follow the example of Jesus. "Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her." Ef.5:25 Husband's part is to bear the responsibility for his wife.

But what did Adam? He didn't give himself up for his wife, because he didn't know the grace of Christ. When God came to rebuke Adam this accused Eve and indirectly also God when he said: "The woman you put here with me - she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it." 1Gen.3:12 The poor fellow, he didn't even take his own responsibility much less the responsibility for his wife.

If Adam would have had the mind of Jesus, he would have answered with words like these: "I have broken your command when I ate the fruit that you forbade. Also my wife ate, but I alone am guilty, for it was me to whom you said that I will die, if I eat from that tree. Do not give the death penalty to Eve, because she heard the command from me and not from you. Only I earn to be sentenced to death. Let Eve live." God expects this masculine firmness as well from men as from women: "We must obey God rather than men!" Acts 5:29

In practice we are unequal in many matters, and it is not dangerous. But it is fateful, if we aim at valuation that doesn't belong to our part.

It is very unhappy, if we reject our possibility to get the position as God's child in Jesus Christ and therefore we will be thrown away as worthless into the fire of hell. "But those who are considered worthy of taking part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children, since they are children of the resurrection." Luke 20:35-36

The real elections

Power on earth doesn't belong to people, but to God! He is the King as a matter of course, for He is Creator of the earth. He does to earth and to people, what He wants. The mankind has made the majority decision to select Devil to the president of the world. Hearts are the polling booths, where power has been given to evil. Many swearwords vote for Devil every day.

It is thought in democracy that majority decisions must be made. God wants that we are unanimous in good decisions. Because the whole world is under the control of the evil one, the will of God has not happened on earth.

The voting in political elections has not the real power. You only show your subjection to a party. The voting in heart selections has the real effect. The political parties are a part of the evilness of man. The partiality and the factionalism are sins. "The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: ..., factions,..." (Gal.5:20) The word "faction" or "denomination" is used in the religious meaning, but they are synonyms with the word "party". The original word in the Bible is the Greek word "haireisis" (= party, sect, heresy, selecting). Everyone can notice the spirit of heresy to be also in the political life.

The virtue corresponding to faction is impartiality or non-party or you engage yourself to good things though you are left alone. God bless everyone who pursues good things! In the polling booth of heart can be voted for Jesus and are surrendered to his ruling. The confession of this dependence must be voted also by mouth. "That if you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord', and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." Rom.10:9

The Bible version used in references is NIV

God's or people's power

God's power is an ideal of believers and people's power is an ideal of godless people. The Church of God is a theocratic and not a democratic community.

God is the Almighty One

Nobody can have authority that is not originated with God, because He is almighty. He gave Adam authority to rule over the earth and over its animals. Man lost his authority to Satan when he rebelled against God. In this way Satan became the prince of this world.

All creatures should remain in their position of authority they have received from God. Satan and his angels didn't keep their own position but abandoned it and reached for the authority that was given man. One, who lusts after authority that God has not given, rebels against Him. Stolen authority finally destroys its owner.

Jesus came down from heaven and became man and was obedient to God in everything and returned to His heavenly position. By living perfectly obedient life as the new Adam He took away from Satan the power to be the prince of the world. He took back what Satan had stolen. So He said after His resurrection: "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth." Mt.28:18

Today Jesus has all authority also on earth and not only in heaven. It is not so that His power comes on earth not until He comes physically on earth. Now He only uses His authority in a different way than during the heavenly millennium. Now He uses His power to call people to the salvation and has left the nations and their leaders under the dominion of Satan. In the heavenly millennium He will rule over everything.

Authority of the Church of God

Jesus offers access to the Kingdom of God from the kingdom of Satan to those who repent their sins. Coming to faith means a transfer of power, which is based on God's love. Because of His Sacrifice I have given Jesus all authority in my life. He is my LORD and my God.

Those who belong to Jesus Christ are the Church of God. In the power of God's love they are obedient to Jesus in everything. So in the Church of God there works theocracy that means God's power. Jesus has delivered His authority as gifts to all His people.

About the authority that He gave His believers He said as follows: "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Mt.28:19-20

Jesus has given us power to proclaim the gospel, by which disciples are made for Him from the citizens of all the nations. Therefore we need not to ask permission for that from any government. Jesus didn't promise us freedom of religion but the same treatment as He received from the world. If He is with us we are able to fulfill our mission, although the rulers of all the nations are against us.

The gospel is the message about God's love. Nobody can be forced to experience love. The freedom to believe or not to believe God is necessary so that anyone could manifest love for God. Without freedom it cannot be experienced God's love neither to become disciples of Jesus. Forcing to become a Christian is really a terrible crime, because it puts obstacles to experiencing love of God.

A religious tyranny has often started in homes where parents have taken away freedom from their children themselves to return God's love. Though they may have thought doing good when they have tried to bring up their children as Christians, they actually may with their pressure have hardened their hearts to God's love.

Christian tyranny has dominated whole nations, when Christian leaders have started to reach after political authority and have surrendered to be instruments of the authority of rulers. In this way they have entered into the position of authority that Jesus has left Satan, for the present. He has not yet given His believers authority to rule over the godless. That power He will give us not until in the heavenly millennium.

Because of God's love it is needed freedom, the result of which the whole world is allowed to be under the control of evilness. Jesus allows Satan to act because the mankind is obedient to its own evilness. Like people like rulers.

Power of politicians

Many Christians have tried to attain to political power. They have wanted to force everyone to follow the Christian life style. Some of them have even believed they are able to make disciples of Jesus from every citizen of a nation. Already in the early Christian time leaders started to baptize babies so that they could rule over a larger number of people. Even now many believers don't understand why the political power should be left Satan and therefore they participate in politics. They do not do as Jesus does.

The triumphal march of democracy is partly reaction to the Christian tyranny. The majority of people have always been godless. So it is no wonder that they have received the ideal of the authority of the majority.

The power of the majority is carried out by voting. In practice democracy is not direct power of people but representative democracy. Parliamentarism is power of parties and not of a people. Financiers of parties decide the objectives that parties pursue. By voting people can only commit themselves to the programme of a party. In this way the heads of families are replaced with rich business men and "grey eminences" of parties as the elders of the nation.

If politics was only taking care of common affairs, civil servants could do it. However the political power is more than managing matters. It is a position of authority that God has prescribed. All authority comes from God: the parental authority over children, the authority of employers over employee, of police over criminals and of a national leader over citizens.

God has prescribed many powers and authorities in the creation but He has not prescribed democracy or rule of the people. Have people received their authority from emptiness? When man has made himself to be the source of authority, he has exalted himself to the position of God. Actually the rule of the people doesn't exist because God is the only source of authority. Satan has deceived nations.

Whoever has the political power he has received it from God and not from people. His authority is not based on how he has been elected to his position. Therefore Paul said about all political leaders as follows: "There is not authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God." Ro.13:1 Roman emperor Nero, dictators Hitler, Mao Tse-tung and Saddam Hussein and president George Bush and all the other rulers have been equally from God.

People's power or democracy is a part of the rebellion against God. In the same rebellious spirit it is opposed to all the authorities from God. Children rebel against their parents, wives against their husbands and employee against employers.

In many countries the power of the elders of families is displaced by the democratically elected leaders. The authority system of the leaders of families and tribes doesn't work anymore, because the traditional family has been destroyed. Democracy is the phenomenon of the last days of this age.

Although a people vote in leaders, it doesn't decide how they act. It matters nothing what they promised before the election because they are puppets of spiritual rulers and they have to carry out the agenda of the prince of this world. On the other hand Jesus puts limits for Satan what he and his angels can do.

Paul urges believers to pray for those who have a position of authority "that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence." 1Ti.2:2 Believers can influence policy and social conditions with their prayers by asking Jesus to put tighter limits for Satan so that he has less influence on leaders. In this kind of intercession work it is needed absolute submission to the Kingship of Jesus. Or - do you really believe that the King would listen to the requests of those who live in the spirit of democracy?

Let the Kingdom of God come!

God is King on His throne. He does whatever He wants in heaven and on earth. He has twenty-four elders who serve Him. There are no elections in heaven but all are submissive to God, out of love for Him. It is voted on nothing there but all agree with God to everything.

The congregations on earth are colonies of the Kingdom of God and there are lived according to the principles of the Kingdom and not of this world. Those who belong to Jesus seek what would perfectly please God and then do it. In congregation it is not voted on the will of God but you must find it by yourself.

The majority is not allowed in any matter - not even the majority of the believers - to dictate that everyone must follow the will of the majority, though it would be even wrong. The spirit of democracy says that "the majority cannot be wrong". In congregation this spirit has step by step pressed those few, who walk on the Narrow Road, to conform to the will of the godless majority.

The congregation of God is a theocratic and not a democratic community. Although Jesus doesn't give political power to His yet, He gives ministries in the Holy Spirit to His Church. Among believers there are respected those who are elected by God and not those who are elected by the members of the community. God anoints whom He wants and nothing is asked from the people. Its task is only to recognize those who God has selected.

If believers' love to Jesus grows cold, they start to rebel against God and the leaders selected by Him. Then they do the same as Israel did against Moses. "So they said to one another, 'let us select a leader and return to Egypt'." Nu.14:4

Paul experienced in Corinth the same kind of a thing as Moses. The believers abandoned him and elected for themselves leaders who were respected according to human values. "Such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness." 2Co.11:13-15 Who are selected by God? Those, who know God, are able to recognize the leaders from God. The others will receive Satan.

As Satan deceived Eve he will deceive a divinely gifted man of God and make him Antichrist. Because of the Fall of Adam he captured the world under his control and as the result of the fall of this Christian leader he will capture the signs and wonders, which were for the use of the Church. Therefore it is prophesied that signs and wonders will "deceive, if possible, even the elect." Mr.13:22

It is so terrible, when one who has received a share of God's heavenly gift, falls away from his position as a servant of God! He is spiritually twice dead, which means falling into the place in eternity named "the second death".

When the Church of God is ready, Jesus will come down from heaven on earth. Then Antichrist alias "the false prophet" will be thrown into the lake of burning sulphur together with the Beast and Satan will be imprisoned into the bottomless pit. Their administration will be destroyed and the Kingdom of God rules on the whole globe. There is no democracy and no elections in the heavenly millennium but Jesus will rule everything together with His.

When the thousand years will be over, Satan will be released from his prison. He will go out to deceive the nations and gathers them for the war against God. He is able to excite nations to rebellion, though the living conditions have been like in a paradise. In this way it will be proved that poor living conditions are not the basic reason for a rebellion, but lust for power. Surely he will also then deceive nations by promising them democracy.

I don't wish for power because God's grace is sufficient for me. Also you, do not taste power but God's Offering. Look at Jesus and taste how good He is. He is worthy to use all power and authority!

Elections and freedom

Freedom gives power and selections lead to responsibility. In a parliamentary election you transfer your power to your lord. Voting affects more you than the decisions that will be done in a parliament.

Power and responsibility

Only a free man can have power. A slave cannot give his power to anybody, because he has not got it. His master does all decisions instead of him. If someone has freedom, he also has the responsibility of the consequences of his decisions.

Voting in a parliamentary election means transferring and not exercising of power. A binding referendum concerning a certain issue would be wielding power and real democracy. So do you visit every fourth year in a polling booth only to give your power away? Did you get any compensation for your transfer of power?

Your relationship to a parliament is like a relationship of a slave to his master. The parliament does decisions instead of you. Your role is only to obey what is decided, or your master will punish you. The government has given you the right to vote so that you could select your master. What is the party whose slavery you selected? You bear the responsibility of your power transfer although your master will be responsible for his decisions.

Probably you say to me that you must obey the parliament although you don't vote. That is true but it is a different thing to obey as an outsider than to take part in its policy. He who doesn't vote has bigger mental freedom than voters. You need to be free from party politics to be able to see things correctly. You can influence matters otherwise than by voting. You can act for good things regardless of who is sitting in a parliament.

Voting can cause you to respect too much the decisions of a parliament. Politicians want you to vote because they like to bind your conscience to their decisions. The government can easily get even the place of God in your eyes.

If you are spiritually free you can recognise that a parliament has not legislative power in moral issues. Do not allow human rules to affect the content of your conscience. Don't allow the godless laws of a parliament to bind your conscience! Do not allow a majority to dictate what is right and what is wrong! We all account for our selections to God.

Voting

I am not going to vote in the parliamentary election. Why? Because I do not accept majority decisions. I accept only right decisions. They are not done by voting. If I accepted voting then I also accepted the power of majority. Having to vote means that there has been a quarrel. No smoke without a fire; no voting without a dispute. If we are unanimous then voting is not needed.

We should aim at unanimous decisions. Now in Finland people are annoyed with parties not differing enough from each other. They are much too unanimous for good voting. Therefore it can be noticed that quarrels between parties are made up on purpose for the election. They try "to save democracy" with disputes, because in democracy people need to have alternatives.

Another reason why I don't vote is the fact that I am a slave servant of God for the sake of Jesus. I have already voted for Jesus and transferred my power to Him. He is my Lord and my God. He will do all decisions for me. He once died for me and suffered my punishment. He is worthy to get all power. He is also able to push my benefits better than any parliament, because He overcame death and lives forever. "His Kingdom come!"

Rule of the people or experts

In human world it is often hard to reach unanimous decisions, although serious negotiations are done. However voting is not the only alternative. In every matter authority can be given to the highest available expertise. Majority is often wrong, but experts are often right.

A parliament could be changed to a council of experts. The best specialists of every sector would be selected through the tests to be the decision-makers and the members of the council. "For lack of guidance a nation falls, but many advisers make victory sure."

Proverbs 11:14 Certainly God is the greatest expert, but because the mankind has dismissed Him, the best available experts should be used.

Christian Democrats

It is downright grotesque that Christian Democratic parties exist, although there is nothing democratic in Christianity. The word democrat means the rule of the people. Christianity is based on the ruling of God. Power belongs to God not to a people. There is no parliament in heaven but God is King and He has the council of the twenty-four elders. "Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven!"

Suppressing of democracies comes as an answer to your Lord's Prayer.

Democracy doesn't come from God but from the devil. The mankind's great common rebellion against God is based on the fact that the devil promised man power. He already tempted Eve to taste a little bit power by saying: "You will not surely die, for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God knowing good and evil." Genesis 3:4-5

One election was advertised with the slogan: "Taste a piece of power. Vote!" In the advertising picture there was a fruit from which a piece had been bitten. How well that advertisement expressed the transfer of power to the devil which the mankind has done! If you taste power sweet, remember that bearing responsibility can be a bitter piece.

Keep away from party politics. If you are interested in acting with the public matters of a nation, study for a post of a public servant and serve in that post as did Daniel of the Bible. He was able to carry out matter-of-fact policy and to be outside parties so well that he was able to maintain his position although a neighbouring state occupied his country.

Effect of election

Do you believe that your voting has an effect on the work of a parliament? You give your vote to a person or to a party. Your representative has been bound to party discipline and your party has been bound to the support of sponsors and grey eminence. Your vote affects them very little. More your voting affects you.

By voting you build your own identity. Through voting you share the decisions that your representative does. You have your personal sins but also there are the common sins of your society. Be aware, by voting you can share in the sins of others. You and your representative together will account to God for the decisions of your representative.

Members of a parliament don't account to the people or to their voters, but to God, because as a matter of fact all power belongs to God. By voting you can share in the partial spirit. You are in danger to become a sectarian (=partial-minded), if you take voting seriously. To be able to keep your judicial mind healthy keep an impartial mind. So do not vote for anybody or for anything, but find out what is right and carry the matter through, regardless of the actions of others. An impartial mind is a noble attitude that doesn't search for votes.

Taxation and dishonest gain

God recommends the income tax rate of 10%. Too high taxation destroys the economy. The high taxation may be caused by the persons who are aiming at dishonest gain. Some have even received the Gospel of God as a dishonest gain.

Dishonest gain

"A tyrannical ruler lacks judgement, but he who hates ill-gotten gain will enjoy a long life." Prov 28:16

If rulers would hate the dishonest gain, they would keep taxes reasonable. Often the taxation is high because there are so many who love a dishonest gain. What is a dishonest gain? It means getting an economical benefit for dishonest reasons. It is a bribe or a benefit which distorts justice. Do you love an economical benefit without work?

A lottery win is an ill-gotten gain, because it comes by chance. Gambling fever is love for dishonest gain. A profit from the stock market is an ill-gotten gain, if it is only based on a conjuncture, but not on the increased real value of the company. A person, who on purpose remains dependent on the unemployment benefit though he could get work, is aiming at a dishonest gain. "If a man will not work, he shall not eat." 2Thess.3:10

The Bible says that especially leaders should hate dishonest gains. "But select capable men from all the people - men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain - and appoint them as officials." Exodus 18:21 They themselves don't take a dishonest gain and they don't give it to others. They rejoice in the victory of justice and nobody can bribe them and they pray God: "Turn my heart towards your statutes and not towards selfish gain." Ps.119:36

The income tax rate of a tenth

God says about the king: "He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vintage..." 1Sam.8:15

God thinks that 10% is the reasonable income tax rate. Too high taxation of the income is wrong, because it punishes for diligence. In addition it often happens that tax revenue end up in the hands of different kind of swindlers who are aiming at a dishonest gain. The worker deserves his wages, if he has worked.

Because the money value is based on the amount of work which is done, it is economically disastrous to give money without work input. There is justice that everybody gets according to his work input. The taxation that steals the wages of the hard-working persons destroys the economy of the country.

How is it possible that the government must lend much money though the taxation is on a high level? It has lived beyond its means and taken too many tasks. It has decided to take "extra" money away from the people and to do something good with them.

God more expects that individuals practise charity than a government. Because people are bad and don't do good with their money the government has decided to do it with tax revenue. The intention is good, but it doesn't remove evil of man. It only forces it to find out new forms.

Tax evasion is a sin

The rebellion against high taxes has caused the quiet conspiracy against the government. Many accept the tax evasion, because they feel that "the state is such a robber". For the followers of Jesus there is the clear word concerning this matter: "Give everyone what you owe him: If you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue;...."

Rom.13:7

So we must pay the taxes as the government has ordered, though they would take too much. A believer pays his taxes because he loves God. "Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God." Rom.13:1

Notice that Paul said this to the believers who were subjects of the Roman emperor. So God wanted that believers even pay their taxes to the emperor who persecuted them. Also Jesus said: "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." Matth.22:21

The real gift and the dishonest gain

The salvation is the gift of God in Jesus Christ. It cannot be deserved by doing good deeds. Some people consider this gift a wrong and dishonest gain. They think that it is so wrong that a badly lived person is going to heaven only because he believes in Jesus and another who has lived well is going to hell, because he doesn't believe in Jesus.

Their thought comes from this Bible text: "However, to the man who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness." Rom.4:5 Is God inciting to love a dishonest gain through His gospel? By no means!

These persons don't see that God's gift doesn't distort justice, but this is done by those who try to misuse His gift. Jesus earned the atoning of our sins through His sacrifice. He has the right to give it to anyone He wants. The justice is there that only righteous ones are reaching heaven. The gift-righteousness which Jesus gained for us opens the gate of heaven for us.

The behaviour of some people who confess the faith gives the reason to criticise the gift they received. They continue on purpose their sinful life after becoming believers and they insist that they are saved by their faith though they live in sin. They have received the gospel as the dishonest gain. You also have heard their gospel: "You are allowed to sin how much ever you want and still you are allowed to come to heaven, when you only believe in Jesus." This message blasphemes God's grace and gift.

If someone is won by Jesus, he follows the next request gladly: "He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his own hands, that he may have something to share with those in need." Eph.4:28 "Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business and to work with your hands, just as we told you, so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders and so that you will not be dependent on anybody."

1Thess.4:11-12

So do not rejoice in the gospel of the dishonest gain. Although the salvation is a free gift for you, Jesus worked hard for it. Honour

His work by surrendering totally to Him. Don't give only 10% of yourself but everything. Then He will live in you and your daily life will be worthy of the gospel of God, for Jesus doesn't sin.

A debt obliges

Indebtedness guides our daily decisions. Therefore it matters what kind of indebtedness we have. Do you owe someone money or love?

Is it wrong to be in debt?

Jesus speaks to a possible lender as follows: "Give to him who asks you, and from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away." Matt.5:42 Jesus encourages us to lend, but He doesn't urge us to borrow. We need not lend to everyone who asks, although we should listen to the needs of everyone. Motives for borrowing are often wrong. We also can lend to a wrong-minded borrower but without expecting to get anything back. Because lending is not wrong also borrowing must be acceptable.

A borrower doesn't commit a sin, but who does not borrow does better.

Paul says: "Owe no one anything except to love one another." Ro.13:8 He doesn't speak about overdue debt payments but urges us to live without loans. If you have a loan you owe, although you are paying off instalments in due time.

He urges us to be free from debts, and to live not only without money debts but also all other debts except for one. "Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor." Ro.13:7 Give honor to whom it is due. If someone did well toward you, give thanks to him. Don't remain indebted. If someone has a position of authority, honor him by treating him according to his position.

If you have experienced God's love in the death and the resurrection of Jesus, then you owe your neighbour, not money, but love. This debt of love you can pay off by treating everyone with the same love God loved you. Many believers are slow to experience this kind of indebtedness, but quick to raise money loans. Therefore Paul said that owe no one anything but love.

A financial debt can prevent us from paying off our debt of love. Our love to God sets us free from our worldly targets, which decreases our need to take up loans. On the other hand our financial debt often binds us to our worldly targets, which can prevent us from binding ourselves to the aspirations of God's love.

I am not better than those people who don't believe in Jesus. I shall be allowed to go into the Paradise of God without my own credit. Anyone can get the same grace. This fact makes me a debtor to godless people. I owe them the gospel. Therefore also Paul writes as follows: "I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise and to unwise. So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also." Ro.1:14-15

Getting into debts and saving

A financial loan is a money transfer from the future to the present day. Saving money is a money transfer from the past to the present or to the future. He who controls himself, saves, but an immoderate man lives on credit. The lust to enjoy today and not tomorrow is a wrong motive to raise a loan.

God's love advises those who belong to Jesus as follows: "Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble." Ro.12:16
How high things should we not seek and how modest conditions should we be satisfied with? It is always relative and depends on the society where we live in. When a believer is evaluating his need to take up a loan he should ask himself, is he settling for modest conditions or is he seeking high things by borrowing money.

Many buy on credit because they want higher living standard today at the expense of the future. However they don't know if they will live tomorrow. A confidence in the economic success in the future should not be accepted as a valid security for a loan. You will not leave behind you more debts than funds when you go to God's Paradise, will you! If you treat your lender with God's love, you won't allow him to suffer a credit loss for your sake.

The lust of owning can cause us to save excessively and the lust of using to buy on credit. The experiences of God's love in His sacrifice on Golgotha make us free from bad lusts. Therefore God's people are not stingy, nor do they live on credit.

God as a lender

God has given us a loan we must pay Him back. He has lent us our life in this world and given us freedom to do as we want. How have you used your freedom? Soon you will die and then you must account to God for your life. You cannot pay the costs of your bad deeds with your good deeds but you still owe Him. Even one single of your sins is so expensive that you are not able to pay for it with all the good deeds of your life.

If you had lived well in everything according to God's will, He would have got back His own. Now you owe God the goodness, which He didn't get from your life. With what do you pay Him your debt?

God became man in Jesus Christ and lived His life according to His goodness. If only the perfect life of Jesus were credited for you your debt would be paid. Just in this way God has prepared the way out from your sin debt for you.

However the good human life of Jesus could not be credited for you, had He not died for you. Everyone deserves the punishment in accordance with his own evilness. Jesus suffered it instead of you so that you could own His goodness. Your sin debt can be paid with the blood of Jesus.

The only thing you can do is to receive God's love.

You can receive God's love by repenting your sins for the reason that Jesus died for you. Be ashamed of your evilness before the goodness of God and confess you are bad and deserve His judgment. The goodness of God leads you to turn to Him. Do you allow the hardness of your heart become soft by the power of God's love? Thus you select your eternal portion.

Indebtedness binds

Indebtedness obliges us to live in such a way that it enables us to pay back our loan. Thus it guides the decisions of our life. Therefore it matters what kind of indebtedness we have.

Selfishness is natural for us and unselfishness is super natural. Our sinful heart claims that we owe ourselves the maximum pleasure.

Believers are warned just against this indebtedness as follows:

"Therefore, brethren, we are debtors - not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live." Ro.8:12-13

Our sinful nature causes us to experience the strong indebtedness to live "at full blast" so that we would have all possible pleasures before we will die. The new life in Jesus sets us free from our debt to "the flesh". Instead we owe God that we live for Him and not for ourselves. "For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died; and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again." 2Co.5:14-15

The indebtedness that comes from the love of Christ doesn't mean buying the salvation with our own deeds, but it is grace that comes from the grace that gave us salvation. There are believers who want to be free from the claims of Christ's love. They have received forgiveness of their sins by the grace of God but they still want to live for themselves and not for Jesus, because their heart is hard against God's love.

They are in danger to die spiritually because the Bible says: "if you live according to the flesh you will die". They are up to their ears in debt to their sinful nature so that they mishear God's gospel. They hear grace as the freedom to live for themselves. They reject their debt of love regarding it as being under law, because they want to stay carnal. It is great mercy of God to be allowed to live for Jesus!

Always someone pays

Living on credit is life "according to the flesh". It is normal life of a natural man, but he who is spiritual doesn't consider it normal. Therefore a carnal believer must be transformed into spiritual and not just give up from living on credit. Only a deeper experience of God's love makes us spiritual.

He who borrowed money and doesn't even try to pay back his loan, lives with the same attitude as a believer who received forgiveness of his sins but doesn't fight against temptations to live without sinning.

The same selfish attitude that misuses a money loan, also misuses the grace of God. A debtor who is relaxed by his lust doesn't keep it in his mind that he doesn't yet own the property gained on credit. Therefore he uses it as if it already were his own. When he hears that Jesus forgives sins he can receive it with joy without thinking at all how much his salvation cost God.

Remember that always someone pays, although it would be free for you. A free salvation doesn't exist. The payment of your salvation cost God everything. He sacrificed His only Son. Repent your evilness because of this vision and fall in love with God. You cannot give your life to Jesus before you first have experienced God's love.

How we use our money reflects on our relationship to God. Jesus says: "Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your own?" Lu.16:11-12 Worldly debts and funds pass away but the true debts and funds stand for ever. I hope you will have riches in eternity instead of being closed into eternal prison of debtors.

God doesn't accept living beyond one's means. However He longingly is waiting for the return of a lost son back to the Father. Let His love break our selfish hearts.

Money and blood

Money is like the blood of a society. If the circulation stops, the economic life dies. The globalisation leads irrevocably to one currency. Euro is only one step toward the one currency of the world. What is your hope? Is it a new brave world that will be revived from the wounded world economy, or is it a new pure life that you get in the blood of God's Son who was wounded for your sins?

Money flows like blood

Cash flows keep a society alive. Production is like lungs and intestines, trade is like a heart and consumption is like muscles. With the help of money products are transported to shops. From there they are pumped to consumption using money. A society is like a living creature. A communication network is a nervous system and monetary transactions form a circulatory system.

Osama Bin Laden wanted to destroy USA. Therefore he hit to its heart that means the trade centre. He knows that the beast will die, if its heart stops. He wants to shed its blood down, that means to put down the value of dollar.

Circulation of a beast

The Bible describes the world powers as beasts. Euro is the blood of the European Union. The blood exchange was done for the twelve European countries. They abandoned their own blood and in their blood vessels started to flow the common EU blood. We have seen a new beast coming out of the sea of nations.

One day the new common money is taken in use in the whole world. Then the word of the Revelation comes true telling about the beast who will get authority over every nation. Rev.13:7. The International Monetary Found, IMF is working for that goal. Then a totally new payment instrument will be taken in use.

"He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no-one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name." Rev.13:16-17

Certainly you will be considered a terrorist, if you refuse to take the mark. However do not take that money in your use! Instead allow the Spirit of God to seal you with the name of Jesus. Also do not try to destroy the beast, for Jesus Himself will do it when He comes to the earth. Woe, the poor beast, it must face the wrath of God.

The blood of the Son of God

You cannot buy the access to Heaven with money, but with the blood of the Son of God. Jesus did the work for the benefit of us and its value is given us in His blood. "For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your forefathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect." 1Peter.1:18-19

The blood of Jesus is a valuable currency. You can use it to pay your sin debts to God. "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. God presented Him as a sacrifice of atonement, through faith in His blood,..." Rom.3:23-24

You can use this payment instrument through faith. If your heart agrees with the words of Jesus, you believe. If you oppose Jesus, you don't believe.

It is not possible to face God without sharing in the power of Jesus' blood. "These in white robes - who are they, and where did they come from?" ... "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore they are before the throne of God..." Rev.7:13-14

This world is moving on further and further away from God. Some day it goes too far so that Jesus' own can have no part in this society. However we need not to be worried about the coming of that day, because God will catch up us just at the right moment.

God has not created evilness but it has evolved by chance. If you cannot see any evidence of God, it is due to the evilness surrounding you.

The globe is a planet of rebelling and evil beings. The governments of all the states rebel against the God Almighty and form the axis of evil. Be soon reconciled to God so that you would not be destroyed together with the rebels!

Some have reached such a dead end in their life that they have found no other way out of their distress than committing a suicide. Woe to them, why didn't they call on God! If they had done it, for them would have been opened the way to life! Do not become a murderer, whatever is the reason for your dead end! Don't knock at the floor of your agony, but at its ceiling. Don't ask for falling down to death, but ask for rising up to life! To him who knocks at it, it will be opened!

The terror attack in USA was a stroke of Islam against misbelievers. They did it in the name of Allah. So is Allah a terrorist? Have pity on them, because they are deceived souls! They have believed lies about God. An Islamite doesn't get out of the circle of revenge, because the Quran doesn't know any atoning sacrifice for sins. Jesus is the only atoning sacrifice which can change revenge to forgiveness. Do not revenge an injustice, for it has already been revenged on Jesus!

He who felt offended must make the choice, whether to seek a revenge or an atonement. To get the atonement it is needed a conciliator. Who pays the damages caused by the injustice deeds?

The globalisation brings with it a government that will rule globally. It is a difficult task to unite the governmental powers of the world. No wonder that there is a need for a secretly acting organisation to make it happen. The mankind is going to have one ruler.

God has all power. Although He has delivered something of His power to men, it is good to remember that He is Lord of lords and King of kings. The humiliations set by God are blessings for us. The rebellions against these humiliations have brought curses to the relationships between people. Mankind pronounces its rebellion against the Almighty God in the name of democracy. Jesus Christ is for us the way to the humility. The unearned increase in value is expecting for the followers of Jesus.

God's power is an ideal of believers and people's power is an ideal of godless people. The Church of God is a theocratic and not a democratic community.

Freedom gives power and selections lead to responsibility. In a parliamentary election you transfer your power to your lord. Voting affects more you than the decisions that will be done in a parliament.

God recommends the income tax rate of 10%. Too high taxation destroys the economy. The high taxation may be caused by the persons who are aiming at dishonest gain. Some have even received the Gospel of God as a dishonest gain.
